Tax Forms: Contributions to 529 plans do not generate tax forms. However, if you took a withdrawal from your NY 529 plan in 2017, you will receive a 1099-Q tax form. This form will be mailed or made available electronically no later than January 31, 2018, based on your selected account preferences. Tax forms and up-to-date transaction history can be accessed by logging on to www.ny529advisor.com.

State Tax Reporting: Contributions that do not appear on this statement but were submitted online or postmarked by December 31, 2017 may have received a 2017 contribution year for tax reporting purposes. For more up-to-date account information and a complete view of 2017 contributions, review the Transactions section of your account by logging on to www.ny529advisor.com.

It's easy to contribute! Login to www.ny529advisor.com and add to your Advisor-Guided Plan account through Electronic Bank Transfer (EBT) or Automatic Investment Plan (AIP) from your checking or savings account. Contribution checks mailed to the Program address at the top of this statement may be made payable to "New York's 529 Advisor-Guided Program." Please be sure to write the beneficiary's account number on the check. Learn more in the Advisor-Guided Plan Disclosure Booklet and through your financial advisor.
